AU REVOIR

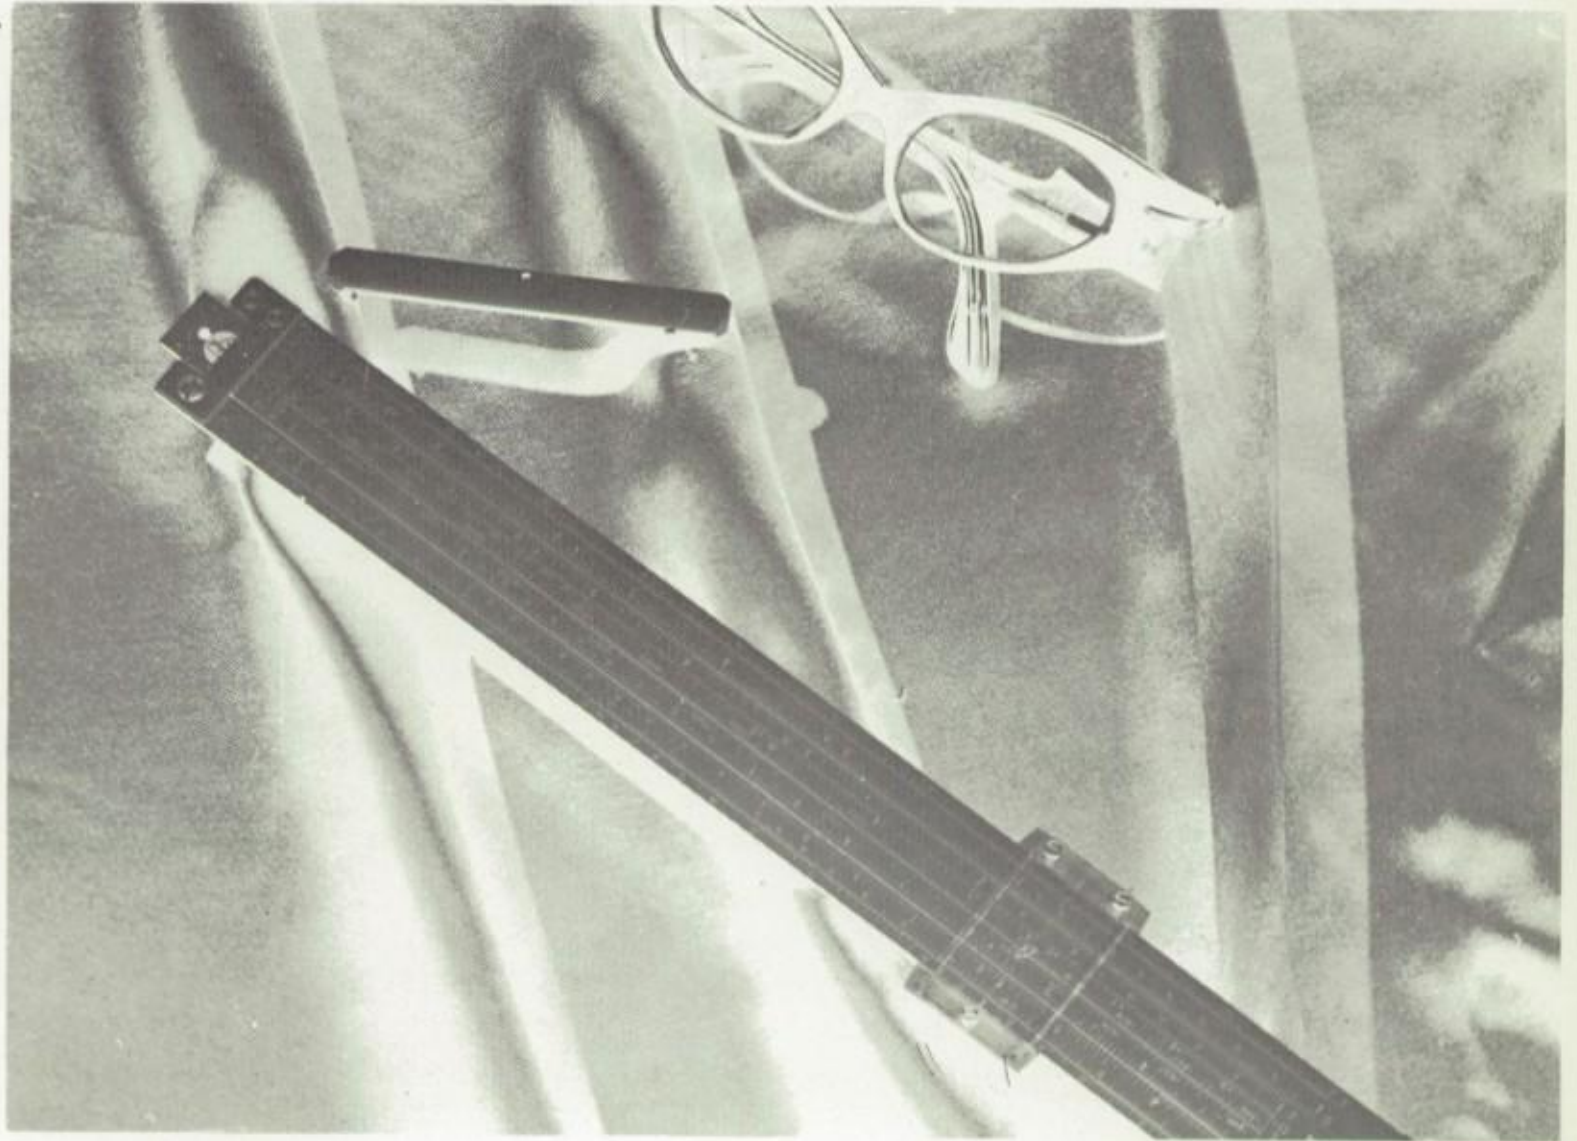

We the Seniors of 1965, would like to express our appreciation of the many things Mr. Bishop has done for us by dedicating the 1965 Au Revoir to him. During both our Junior and Senior plays he devoted a large portion of his time and was never too busy to lend a helping hand. When we look back and remember the hours spent in his classes in bookkeeping, office practice, typing, shorthand, and driver's education, we will consider it well used time not only for what we learned but for the warm and friendly atmosphere.

We will always be grateful for the time and energy he has spent helping us.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1961, twenty members of the freshman class were met by eighteen seniors who were anxiously awaiting our arrival. Our freshman class officers were President, Ronald Overholser; Vice President, Frank Gunsolley; Secretary, Terry Morrow; Treasurer, Deanna Freel; and Student Council Representative, Terry Hayworth. The other members of the class were Dolores Day, Elaine Elmer, Donald Goins, Roy Grubbs, Judith Haley, Clara Harris, Mary Hayworth, Patti Hogue, Sharon Kimberlin, Bobby Moore, Twila Morrow, Joan Rychnovsky, Ronald Schlapia, Sharon Sobotka, and Jim Stephens. Jim Norris joined us at the semester. Our most exciting events were initiation and a hay ride. Our class sponsor was Mr. Carver.

Class officers elected in the fall of 1962 were President, Terry Hayworth; Vice President, Jim Norris; Secretary-Treasurer, Joan Rychnovsky; and Student Council Representative, Patti Hogue. During the year, we lost Bobby Moore and Roy Grubbs to East Union and Elaine Elmer to Mount Ayr. A class trip to River View Park in Des Moines with Mr. Teale, our sponsor, highlighted our year as sophomores.

Realizing we were half way through we came back in the fall of 1963 and elected class officers as follows: President, Joan Rychnovsky; Vice President, Frank Gunsolley; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Hayworth; and Student Council Representative, Ronald Overholser. During the year, we were kept busy with a "Sadie Hawkins Party", our play 'HILLBILLY WEDDIN' under the direction of Mr. Bishop, and the planning and preparation for the Junior-Senior and Prom--- "In Apple Blossom Time" under the sponsorship of Mrs. Bailey.

On August 24, 1964, fifteen seniors climbed the stairs to start their last year of school. Class offices were President, Frank Gunsolley; Vice President, Donald Goins; Secretary, Clara Harris; Treasurer, Patti Hogue; and Student Council Representative, Joan Rychnovsky. During the summer, we lost Mary and Terry Hayworth to Lenox. After initiating the freshmen properly we put on our senior play, 'PAPA SAYS NO', under the direction of Mr. Bishop. Other activities were Senior Ad Day, work on the year book, our night out, Baccalaureate, Senior Night, and Commencement, marking an end to our high school days.

We ended our senior year finding that eleven members have gone all through their school days together. They are Dolores Day, Frank Gunsolley, Clara Harris, Patti Hogue, Sharon Kimberlin, Terry Morrow, Twila Morrow, Ronald Overholser, Joan Rychnovsky, Ronald Schlapia, and Jim Stephens.

As we the Senior Class of 1965 say "Good-bye" we find a tear in our eyes from our many memories of Diagonal High.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"PAPA SAYS NO!"
by
Felicia Metcalfe

When wealthy, dictatorial Mr. Page decides to end his daughter Janet's romance with Jack Prescott by taking her for a trip to Florida, exciting things start to happen. From Florida, Mr. Page thinks it will be an easy step to send her to South America for a year's stay with his brother. But, when Jack finds out what is happening things begin to look complicated for everyone. Mr. Page then meets two very attractive women. This, along with Janet, makes things very complicated. His actions prove out to be very exciting.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Dolores Day, will my long fingernails to Sandra Johnson, my bad temper to Karen Gaunt, and my ability to sew to Doris Campbell.

I, Sharon Gaunt, will my promptness to my sister Karen, my temper to Sandra Johnson, and my ability to stall cars to Rhonda Ramsbottom.

I, Don Goins, being of stable mind will my safe driving habits to Larry Fletcher, my gambling in study hall to Gerald Swartz, and my all night excursions to Gary Overholser.

I, Frank Gunsolley, being of sound mind leave my good study habits to Gene Hutchinson, my hunting ability to Steve Strange, and my ability to get along with certain girls to Jay Watson.

I, Clara Harris, will my long fingernails to Rhonda Ramsbottom, my height to Sandra Johnson, and my promptness to get to school on time to Dora Bolinger.

I, Patti Hogue, bequeath my safe driving habits to Candy Tindle, my clumsiness to anyone who can stand on two feet, and my ability to get to know older boys to Nancy Strange.

I, Sharon Kimberlin, will my quiet ways to Diane Rinehart, my height to Sally Saville, and my forgetfulness to Karen Gaunt.

I, Terry Morrow, leave the fun we've had in Joan's "Savory" to Monna, Donna, and Teena, and the yards of tape and angora I've used for Mike's ring to Kathy Sobotka.

I, Twila Morrow, will the fun Joan, Terry, and I have had in our second period study hall to Teena, Donna, and Monna, and my height to Rhonda Ramsbottom.

I, Jim Norris, being of sound mind leave my quiet and bashful ways to Ann Beymer, my many wild fishing trips to anybody who likes to fish, and my ability to get out of trouble to Jay Watson.

I, Ronald Overholser, being of sound mind will my fighting ability to Gene Hutchinson, and my quietness to Randy Schaefer.

I, Joan Rychnovsky, will my post-guard position to my sister Monna, my first-base position to my other sister Donna, and my promptness to Paul Pine.

I, Ronald Schlapia, being of sound mind will my quiet ways in study hall to Steve Strange, and my ability to stay in room eleven at noon to Frank Carson.

I, Sharon Sobotka, being of sound mind leave my ability to get stuck in driveways to Dorothy Garrett and my love for sports and feminine ways to Joy Gunsolley.

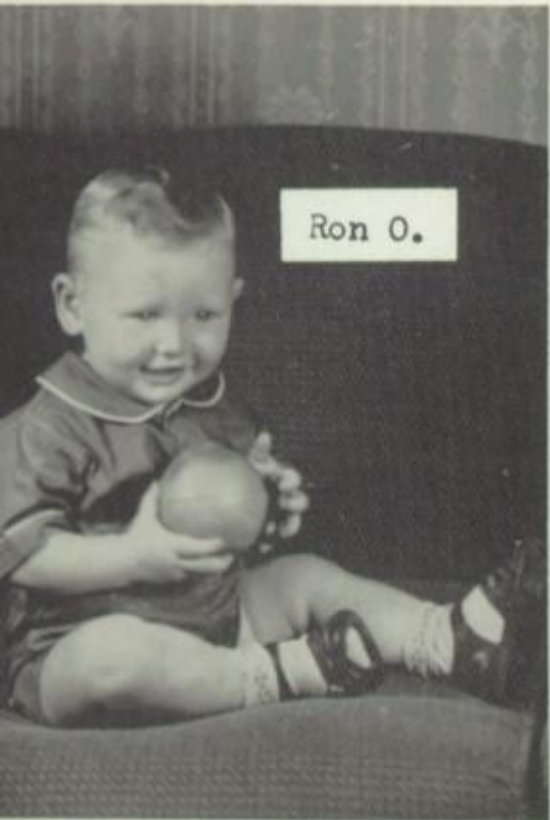

I, Jim Stephens, being of sound mine will my all night fishing to Ron Yashack and my ability to stay out of trouble to Gary Overholser.

We, the Diagonal Senior Class of 1965, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby declare the above to be our true desires and this our last will and published testament.

JUNIOR PLAY

"MAN OVERBOARD"
by
Felicia Metcalfe

Four lively, lovely, fun-loving teen-age girls with an old maid chaperone, a cereal salesman(?), a group of college boys, a health addict, and very important government agent----these are the passengers on a riotous trip to Europe. Miss Hannah Blair has been given the nerve-racking task of accompanying Katsy Prew, Dotty Allen, Flossie Nelson, and Melanie Leroy on their dream vacations. However, their dreamy ideas are soon ruined when she forbids them to talk to Joe Nash, Bill Trent, and Dick Moore, the handsome college boys. While the girls are trying to persuade Miss Hannah to let them have some fun, strange things begin to happen on the ship. Among these are the disappearance of Mr. Van Cleve and secret papers. Immediately Miss Hannah suspects the salesman, Honey-Boy Brown. Just what does he carry in that bag? Only with the help of Joe, Bill, and Dick is the mystery solved and the body recovered, which proves to Miss Hannah that strange boys can sometimes be very nice indeed.

Homecoming activities were held January 31, 1965, carrying out the theme, "In the Misty Moonlight."

A carpet dusted with gold glitter lead the attendants and the candidates to their own rescent moon.

King Frank Gunsolley and Queen Lila Swank descended their royal throne to crown Ron Overholser and Joan Rychnovsky as 1965 Homecoming King and Queen.

Following the coronation, the King and Queen invited everyone to enjoy an evening of dancing.
